

The Three Irrefutable Laws of Humanity

The Law of Judgment

- Judge and you are condemned by and with what you judge.
- Accept and you are free.
- The final judgement “Love is Real, Here” is the access to Infinite Power and Freedom with All That IS...Loving what is as it is, Is and IS.

The Law of Free Will

- Honor the Freedom to choose.
 - Fear over Love
 - Illusion over Truth
 - Judgment over Acceptance
- Respect each decision.

Thereby, respecting the power to decide (your own and that of others.)
- Hold reverence for the use of thought, energy and action.

Used for:

- Separation or Unity
- False or Real
- Mis-creation or Creation

The Law of Purpose.

- It is 100% possible to live 100% On Purpose Now.

If I am not On Purpose Now, for any reason, whatsoever, I must still be afraid (perhaps terrified) of the real power of living On Purpose Now.

ON PURPOSE NOW.

- If you don't choose your purpose and decide how you will live it, you won't.

Three things affect everything you see:

- your view of Life
 - your Purpose
 - your view of yourself.
- This world, life, these bodies, all events, encounters, and circumstances faithfully serve the purpose you assign them.
 - "Knock and the door will be opened, ask and it shall be given, seek and ye shall find".
 - Give the world, conditions, and life a new purpose and they will serve to fulfill it. *"Everything here is working as my teacher to enlighten me and show me the work there is to do"...*Byron Katie.
 - Once you have deliberately chosen and decided to live On Purpose all events, encounters, and circumstances are seen, as helpful in fulfilling your purpose or exposing what is displacing it.
